Joe Skalaru (sp), non-resident, here on behalf of Dan Rossi, discussed alleged vehicle on sidewalk in front of Get a Grip. Addressed with concerns of application of a broad cutting statute that was discussed here with regards of the footage between four and six feet. Give impression of passersby to give people impression of this town being very alive.

Diane Malenga, non-resident, stated that after hearing awful disparaging comments coming from council members, they need to apologize. Discussion of the cost of rents downtown and fees associated with proposed ordinance.

Nancy Redish, non-resident, addressed council on issue of proposed ordinance. Expressed support for Get A Grip and businesses of the downtown.

Rachel Collier, business owner, non- resident, inquired about cement barriers that have been sitting and not removed. Addressed Councilwoman Gorshkov regarding an apology to business owners. Inquiring about trimming the tree in front of the speed limit sign.

Deanne Woodruff, borough resident, stated it is hard to own a business. If the borough needs to cover the cost of whatever needs to be covered, suggested to charge them (businesses) ten dollars instead of $75.00 dollars. Using the sidewalk to display things should be able to use them. Stated that council should try and support the business and anyone else who wants to open up a shop.

Nicole Kries, borough resident and business owner, came to this town, and has a second store. Came into town expected support, which she received but found out about fees and rules, it is extremely hard to run a business. Stated that she would love to have council patronize their stores.

Scott Cassles, non-resident, owns Scotty's, stated that the town needs a pickup needs a draw needs something for someone to stop. Cars fly by, borough needs something. Stated that this is his first council meeting ever.

Chris Bauknight, borough resident, stated that it is nice to see a lot of people out tonight. Stated that this topic (sidewalk ordinance) has been arguing about this awhile. There needs to be a solution. Stated that we can't compare cities., we are Washington, we have an identity of our own , support each other.

Cathy Laporte, non-resident, businesses in borough, pointed out her viewpoints to the car at Get A Grip, citing that it brought people here and people taking pictures in front of the car. Expressed the mounting fees and expenses businesses have to pay. Stated that she has never been able to make a living here. Puts heart into her business and her fair-trade business. Thanked the council members who have stopped in once in a while. Suggested to form a separate committee with council and the BID members and working out something that will work for everyone.

Andre Walters, non-resident, works at local business and noticed the vehicle at Get A Grip, inquired about the issue of the vehicle. Stated it is a very unique display.

John Thompson, non-resident, stated he patronizes this town as much as he can. Voiced his support for Get A Grip. Pointed out other areas of borough that are in worse shape. The vehicle is a great display which this town needs.

Tom (last name inaudible), borough resident, stated his wife owns store in borough, discussed the four feet disagreement and the charge for it. Stated he owns the property. Needs to be room for discretion. Pleaded to Council to tread carefully.

Jessica Sputnak (sp) borough resident voiced her support for Dan Rossi his passion for this town and thanked Mel (BID Executive Director). Shameful of bickering between members. Interested in helping anyway she can.

Dan Rossi, borough resident and business owner, hired a business consultant and did a business survey which was handed out to council. Referred to his report in relation to his business Get A Grip and showed a display in regards to his report.

Joe Kappa(sp) non-resident stated that this town needs all these little businesses, or this will be a ghost town. Asked for everyone to work together and help these businesses and not hurt them with these fees.

Denise Coleman, non-resident, stated if you're having issues with the businesses downtown , she recommended consulting with the BID and businesses.

Lisa Tolfinger (sp), non- resident, discussed the little fees that are ruining towns. Stated she does historical reenacting , whenever she's in town she takes a picture of Mr. Rossi's store and posts it on social media. Council should be representative of the businesses for the good of the businesses.

Ken (no last name given), borough resident, stated he learned a lot tonight and still has a lot to learn. Stated he believes a community should stick together. Does believe a mistake was made to not have this side speak during the workshop. Asked why they weren't able to speak during the workshop.

Hearing no further public comment, motion made by Cox and seconded by Gorshkov to close the public portion all were in favor.

MINUTES

Motion to approve the following minutes made by Cox and seconded by Musick , all were in favor.

Regular meeting minutes of October 3, 2023.

REPORTS

Committee Reports:

Recreation-France stated he is working with manager with the gentleman who heads up the 501c and a meeting will be sometime this week.

Land Use Board-Mayor Conry stated that the meeting was canceled last night, applicant was not prepared.

Streets-Brown reported that striping is being measured for a couple of roads in question, he is working with manager in getting costs.

Ordinance-Gorshkov reported that she was looking into fees that are on the books from the 70's and 80's in which the manager is also working on these.

Managers' Report- Manager Bond reported that the QPA Rose Witt has retired and there is a resolution to appoint Hector Herrera, a qualified QPA. Manager Bond stated a request to use borough council chambers on an evening where no one normally works was made. This would involve having to call an employee to come in and pay them overtime to open the doors, Washington Community Garden wants to use council chambers for three Wednesday nights. Since bringing someone to come open doors, suggested to pass a motion for that fee to be passed along to them instead of having taxpayers take up the cost.

Motion

Motion made by Cox to accept managers suggestion to approve the meeting room to have fees passed along to them for an employee to come in and close the building, motion seconded by Brown .

Roll call: Brown, Cox, France, Gorshkov, Infinito, Musick and Conry.

Ayes: 7 Nays: 0

Motion passes.

Attorney Peterson, gave the following updates:

181-183 Belvidere Avenue- the son did acquire the permits. First floor still up. Need to see if he is going to finish taking down rest of building. Will follow up to make sure its taken down to concrete pad.

Washington Station Ventures-received a phone call and email from Washington Station Ventures, this is the thirty-five acres, near cemetery. They want to know if we have a consensus, they will sell ten acres of cemetery which is part of an agreement and pay the affordable housing fee and then deed the rest to the town the remaining portion to borough (25 acres). Consensus of council agreed. Will need to change settlement agreement. Peterson explaining builders remedy with regards to COAH.

Attorney Peterson reported that he met with the Planner and had conference call with Attorney that represents the soon to be applicant for old gas station on corner of 57 and 31 about the design. There will need to be a process to amend a redevelopment plan to allow a gas station and make sure it makes sense to the whole plan. Make it enticing for people to invest and part of that is the design. Some issues to work out and tie it in with the project.

RECAP

Borough Manager Bond recapped the following:

Everyone did very well in diversity and interaction with the public; everyone kept calm.

Working together we are getting a lot accomplished, have a long way to go but we are getting there.

COUNCIL REMARKS

Councilman Brown gave the following remarks:

- Trying to understand where everyone is coming from expressing details of the ordinance in crafting it.
- Underlying problem here , everyone still needs to define what Washington Borough is. Having a brand-new website is kind of exciting. Having philosophy and think about things, this whole world is on fire. We have to set the tone. Those people think we are tone def. This town is an extension of my home. You have to get out there and talk to people and listen to the people that put you in those seats.

Councilwoman Cox gave the following remarks:

- A lot of people were upset so were we.
- Is a shame some of the business owners did not have courage to speak up when there is an issue.
- People don't always say what they are supposed to say.
- Thanked the Police Chief and Officer Koch for being here.
- Thanked everyone else for being here.
- Thanked the Clerk and Mayor Conry.

Councilman France gave the following remarks:

- The method of having these workshops is very good and informative to him and the public.
- Public mentioned about people can leave stuff and it doesn't get stolen. Credit the police department. Appreciate everyone working together . Town is improving and optimistic about town.

Councilman Infinito gave the following remarks:

- Between now and the first hearing of sidewalk ordinance there is a lot of things to think about. Very happy to end up doing these workshops very important we work to craft ordinances specific to the borough and not random boiler plate. Looking forward to conversation continuing.

Councilwoman Gorshkov gave the following statements:

- In regard to the sidewalk ordinance, she stands by what she said originally it was a $100 flat fee and did try to cut cost. Added that the Borough has a lot of debt.
- Does cost money to enforce the code.
- The Get a Grip did break four ordinances, everyone must follow those laws. Can not let one person slide or there will be chaos.
- Thanked everyone for coming out .

Councilwoman Musick gave the following remarks:

- Thanked everyone that came out at beginning and stayed all the way through to the end.
- Thanked everyone here for a wonderful workshop. Hope to continue working forward.

Mayor Conry gave the following remarks:

- Discussed what it means for the audience on what a council appearance is when coming up to make comments.
- Stated that we do have to come together, and the workshop is there for businesses and residents to see decisions that is in the open public. We are following an agenda keeping a decorum.
- We are here late but we got through it.
- Supporting our businesses, we support them , there has to be laws to abide by. If we don't have laws this world be wrecked.
- Workshop was great definitely have to have those.
- Thanked everyone who came out.
- Thanked police, professionals. the clerk and council members.

ADJOURN

Hearing no further business to come before Council, motion made by Cox and seconded by Musick to adjourn the meeting at 8:45 PM, all were in favor.
